

Nigel Gatherer's Scottish Collection

The Fourteenth of October (traditional) slow air

G Bm D C G D

G Em C G D C G

Em G C C G D

G Em C Am G Bm C G

The Eleventh of October (traditional) strathspey

G G D7 G

C D7 G G C Em G D7

G C D7 G

The first tune is old, appearing in several early 18th Century collections, indicating that it's probably from the 1600s. The significance of the date is unknown, although it could simply be because it's St Crispin's Day, or perhaps the birth of King James VIIth. The second tune can also be found as a reel under the title An Ugly Customer.

St Crispin