

The Shetland Collection

Da Auld Resting Chair (Tom Anderson)

slow air

Musical score for the mandolin part of "Da Auld Resting Chair" by Tom Anderson. The score is in 4/4 time and G major. It consists of five systems of music, each with a treble clef staff and a mandolin staff below it. Chord names (G, D, C, A, Am, D7) are placed above the treble staff. The mandolin staff contains fret numbers for the left hand.

Da Auld Resting Chair - harmony (Christine Martin)

Composed by the great Shetland fiddler Tom Anderson, when he found, in the ruins of his grandfather's house, the remains of the old wooden settle or 'restin chair' on which his grandfather used to sit while teaching Tom the fiddle.

Musical score for the harmony part of "Da Auld Resting Chair" by Christine Martin. The score is in 4/4 time and G major. It consists of four systems of music, each with a treble clef staff and a mandolin staff below it. The mandolin staff contains fret numbers for the left hand.

Auld Resting Chair