Donal Don (traditional)

1 $G / / / C / D7 /$
 1 Wha hasna heard o' Donal' Don? Wi' a' his tanterwallops on,
 $G / / / D7 G$
 For Oh! he was a lazy drone, An' smuggled Hielan' whisky.

Ch $G / / / C / D7 /$
 Hi-rum-ho for Donal' Don, Wi' a' his tanterwallops on,
 $G / / / D7 G$
 And may he never lack a scone While he maks Hielan' whisky.

2 $G / / / C / D7 /$
 2 When he first cam' tae auld Dundee 'Twas in a smeekey hole lived he;
 $G / / / D7 G$
 Whaur gauger bodies couldna see, He played the king a pliskie. Chorus

3 $G / / / C / D7 /$
 3 When he was young and in his prime, He lo'ed a bonny lassie fine;
 $G / / / D7 G$
 She jilted him an' aye sin' syne He's dismal, dull and dusky. Chorus

4 $G / / / C / D7 /$
 4 A bunch o' rags is a' his brows His heathery wig wad fricht the craws;
 $G / / / D7 G$
 His dusky face and clorty paws, Wad fyle the Bay o' Biscay. Chorus

5 $G / / / C / D7 /$
 5 He has a sark, he has but ane, It's fairly worn tae skin an' bane,
 $G / / / D7 G$
 A-loupin', like tae rin its lane Wi' troopers bauld and frisky. Chorus

6 $G / / / C / D7 /$
 6 Whene'er his sark's laid out tae dry It's Donald in his bed maun lie,
 $G / / / D7 G$
 An' wait till a' the troopers die, Ere he gangs oot wi' whisky. Chorus

7 $G / / / C / D7 /$
 7 So here's a health tae Donal' Don, Wi' a' his tanterwallops on,
 $G / / / D7 G$
 An' may he never lack a scone While he maks Hielan' whisky. Chorus
