

Nigel Gatherer's Scottish Collection

Doon in the Wee Room (Daniel McLaughlin)

Ch Doon in the wee room underneath the stair,
Everybody's happy, everybody's there;
An' we're a' makin' merry, each in his chair,
Doon in the wee room underneath the stair.

1 When you're tired and weary and you're feeling blue, Don't give way tae sorrow, I'll tell you what to do; Tak' a trip tae Springburn and find Quin's Bar
there, And go doon tae the wee room underneath the stair. [CHORUS]

2 The king went oot a-hunting, his fortune for tae seek, He missed his train at Partick, went missing for a week; After days of searching, of sorrow and despair, They found him in the wee room underneath the stair. [CHORUS]

3 When I'm auld and feeble and my bones are gettin' set, Ah'll no get cross and grumpy like other people get; Ah'm savin' up ma bawbees tae buy a hurly chair, Tae tak' me tae the wee room underneath the stair. [CHORUS]

This song is about Quin's Bar, which is in the Springburn area of Glasgow. The tune has been heard in a Laurel and Hardy film

