

Nigel Gatherer's Irish Collection

Johnny McIljohn's No.1 (traditional)

reel

Musical score for 'Johnny McIljohn's No.1' in D major, 4/4 time. The score consists of three systems, each with a treble clef staff and a mandolin staff. The mandolin staff includes fret numbers and fingering (e.g., 4 0 0 0 2 0 4 0). Chords are indicated above the treble staff: D, G, A, Bm, C, D7.

Johnny McIljohn's No.2 (traditional)

reel

Musical score for 'Johnny McIljohn's No.2' in D major, 4/4 time. The score consists of three systems, each with a treble clef staff and a mandolin staff. The mandolin staff includes fret numbers and fingering (e.g., 5 5 4 5 2 5 2). Chords are indicated above the treble staff: G, D7, C, D7.

Johnny McIljohn's

The first tune above is a simplified variant of the Irish reel The Silver Spear. I got it from an early LP from the Boys of the Lough. Cathal McConnell of Fermanagh learned it from Tommy Maguire, whose father (John Maguire, known as "Johnny McIljohn") used to lilt the tune at sessions. The second tune came from a later recording by the same group.

