

Set 44: The Campbells - jigs

Wha'll Be King But Charlie? (traditional)

Bm x2

D Bm D Bm

Bm F#m Bm F#m Bm

Bm Bm Bm A D

Bm F#m Bm F#m Bm

Intro

Wha'll Be King but Charlie was published in 1816 by Capt Simon Fraser, who noted that it was a tune we have in common with Ireland. There it is known as "Behind the Bush in the Garden" or "The Bargain is Over". "The Campbells Are Comin' O-ho, O-ho!" was a song from probably the early 18th century when John Campbell, Duke of Argyll, was made commander-in-chief of George the first's forces in Scotland and contributed to its suppression.

The Campbells Are Coming (traditional)

G x2

G Em G D

G G Em C G Em

Em G Em C

G Em G Em C G Em