You're So Vain (Carly Simon)

1 You walked into the party, like you were walking on to a yacht,
 Your hat, strategically dipped below one eye, your scarf it was apricot;
 You had one eye in the mirror as, you watched yourself gavotte, and all the Girls dreamed that they'd be your partner, they'd be your partner and

Ch You're so vain, you probably think this song is about you,
 You're so vain, I'll bet you think this song is about you, don't you, don't you?

2 You had me several years ago, when I was still quite naive,
 Well you said that we made such a pretty pair, and that you would never leave,
 But you gave away the things you loved and one of them was me
 I had some dreams they were clouds in my coffee, clouds in my coffee and

Chorus

3 Well I hear you went up to Saratoga and your horse natur'ly won;
 Then you flew your Lear jet up to Nova Scotia, to see the total eclipse of the sun;
 Well you're where you should be all the time and when you're not you're with
 Some underworld spy, or the wife of a close friend,
 Wife of a close friend and

Chorus

A smash hit for Carly Simon in 1972, it caused decades of speculation about who the subject of the song was. She has since said that one of the verses was about Warren Beattie, but she has not revealed the names of the men featured in the other verses.
