Four in the Morning (Jerry Chesnut)

1 C / / / /
 It's four in the mornin' and once more the dawnin' Just woke
C G7 / / / /
 up the wanting in me; Wishin' I'd never met her, knowing if I'd G7 / / C
 forget her How much better off she would be.
C / / / /
 The longer I hold on and the longer this goes on, The harder
C7 F / / G7 C
 it's gonna be; But it's four in the mornin' and once more the Am Dm G7 C /
 dawnin' Just woke up the wanting in me-ee

2 C / / / /
 I never deserved her, God knows when I hurt her That's the last thing
C G7 / / / /
 that I want to do She tries but she can't tell how she feels But
G7 / / C / / / /
 I know too well what she's goin' through If I love her so much, I
C / / / C7 F
 don't know why I can't do The right thing and just let her be;
F G7 C Am
 But it's four in the mornin' and once more the dawnin'
Dm G7 C /
 Just woke up the wanting in me-ee.

Released in 1971, this song became a country charts hit for Faron Young. It was an even bigger hit in the UK, where it got to No.3 in the summer of 1972. It was written by Jerry Chestnut, who also composed the songs Good Year for the Roses and T-R-O-U-B-L-E.
