

The Sixties Collection

Sweet Caroline (Covid-19 Version) (Neil Diamond)

1 CC FF
Where it began, I can't begin to knowin',
CC G G GGGG
But then I know it's growin' strong;
CC FF
Was in the spring, Then spring became the summer,
C G G GGGG
Who'da believed you'd come along?
C Am G F G
Hands, washing hands, reaching out, don't touch me, I won't touch you -
CG C F FCF G
Sweet Caroline Good times never seem so good,
CGC F FCF G F G F
I've been inclined to believe they never would, but now I...

2 CC FF
Look at the night, And it don't seem so lonely,
CC G G GGGG
We fill it up with only two;
CC FF
And when I hurt Hurting runs off my shoulder,
CC G G GGGG
How can I hurt when holding you?
C Am G F G
Hands, washing hands, reaching out, don't touch me, I won't touch you -
CG C F FCF G
Sweet Caroline Good times never seem so good,
CGC F FCF G
I've been inclined to believe they never would,
G F G CCC CCC FFF FFF CCC CCC C—
Sweet Ca - ro - line.

Written and performed by Neil Diamond in 1969, Sweet Caroline was composed for his wife. In 2020 he adapted his beloved song for the Coronavirus Crisis and sang it to the world.

