

The Birken Tree (traditional)

song air

Em D Bm G D

Em D G D Bm

Em Bm D D

Em Bm G D Em

A Branch Tune (traditional)

polka

G C D7 G G C

D7 G G C D7

G Em C D7 G

The Birken Tree is a Scottish folksong. This setting is taken from the playing of the Edinburgh group Jock Tamson's Bairns. A Branch Tune is from Newfoundland (where there is a town called Branch. Other names for the tune include The Road to Boston, the Road to London and Nathaneal Greene's March.

