G C G D G
 1. 'Twas in the merry month of May, when balmy winds first blow.

Em C G D
 I met my love in Arisaig, where rhododendrons grow.

G C G D
 I met my love in Arisaig, in the shadow of Craig Mor,

G C G D G
 The sun shone on the Isle of Eigg, far from the silver shore.

Em C G D G
 The sun shone on the Isle of Eigg, far from the silver shore.

G C G D G
 2. And in the months that followed our love and friendship grew,

Em C G D
 Warmed by the summer sun and a love that was so new.

G C G D
 We walked among the hills and by the crashing ocean's roar.

G C G D G
 The sun shone on the Isle of Eigg, far from the silver shore.

Em C G D G
 The sun shone on the Isle of Eigg, far from the silver shore.

G C G D G
 3. Autumn came to Arisaig with colours fair to view;

Em C G D
 Birds were flying South again - soon we'd follow, too.

G C G D
 A sad song echoed in the hills - Lochaber no more.

G C G D G
 The sun shone on the Isle of Eigg, far from the silver shore.

Em C G D G
 The sun shone on the Isle of Eigg, far from the silver shore.

Repeat verse 1.
