

Nigel Gatherer's Scottish Collection

The Arran Boat (traditional)

slow air

Em                      D                      Em

D                      Em                      Em

G                      D                      Em

G                      Em                      Em                      G                      D

Em                      D                      Em

Source: The Arran Boat: Ach, I've known this for so long the origin of where I learnt it is lost in the mists of time, although I got a lot of music from my first tunebook, Kerr's Merry Melodies. The tune also appears as the air to a song, "Queen Mary's Escape from Lochleven Castle". Harmony and arrangement by me.

Arran Boat