

The Irish Collection

John Kelly's (traditional)

Am Am Am G Am Am Am G Am

Am Am D G Am Am C G Am

Am Am D G D Em D C Am G Am

The Cuil Aodha Polka (traditional)

polka

Em D Em D Em D G Em

D D G A

D D G Em

The first polka is actually a version of a reel called Scotch Mary. The second is named after the Cuil Aodha (pronounced Coolea) townland in County Cork, right down in the south-western area of Ireland. Both tunes come from the playing of fiddler James Kelly.

John Kelly's Polka

