

Niel Gow's Apprentice (Mike Marra)

Refrain: C / G7 / C / G7 / C / G7 / C / / /

Ch C / G7 / C / / / /
 Oh, no more will I rove no more, it's over.
 C / G7 / C / / / /
 Oh, no more will I rove no more, it's done.
 Am / / / F / G7 /
 I'll sit beneath the fiddle tree with the ghost of Niel Gow next to me,
 C / G7 / C / / / /
 Listen, Niel, your apprentice has begun.

1 C / G7 / C / / / /
 The old man looked in the inglenook and wondered,
 C / G7 / C / / / /
 His brother in a foreign land he must remain.
 Am / / /
 When deived about the life he'd choose,
 F / G7 /
 They each would wear the other one's shoes,
 C / G7 / C / / / /
 This motherland is a source of constant pain. [Chorus]

Refrain: C / G7 / C / G7 / C / G7 / C / / /

2 C / G7 / C / / / /
 Rumblin' Brig I hear your music calling;
 C / G7 / C / / / /
 In the outback still I heard your song.
 Am / / /
 Living off a foreign field with
 F / G7 /
 Far more fish than the Braan could yield,
 C / G7 / C / / / /
 This trip will be my last and it won't be long.

[Chorus]

Refrain: C / G7 / C / G7 / C / G7 / C / / /

(a cappella):

C— G7— C—
 Oh no more will I rove no more, it's done.—

Niel Gow's Oak, or "the fiddle tree", where the famous fiddler would sit and compose tunes.
