Tarbolton Lodge is probably named for the Freemason Lodge in Mauchline, Ayrshire, which was founded in 1771. Robert Burns was initiated in 1781. The tune - also known as Hatton Burn - does not appear to be very old, first appearing in the 1870/80s in three of the standard anthologies of Scots dance music: Kerr's Merry Melodies, the Skye Collection and the Athole Collection.
