Girl On the Billboard (Garrett/Haynes)

Intro: (1, 2, 3) C / (Doodle doo doo) doo a-doodle doo doo doo.

1 Who is the girl wearing nothing but a smile and a towel in the picture on the billboard in the field near the big old high - way? Rolling down the highway in my Jimmy hauling freight from Chi - cago to St. Louis Lord I see her everyday. A double-clutching weasel like me can hardly ever get a girl to look at him that way; Like the girl wearing nothing but a smile and a towel in the picture on the billboard in the field near the big old highway.

2 Wow, what a girl wearing nothing but a smile and a towel in the picture on the billboard in the field near the big old high - way. I bet it wouldn't take her very long to get gone if someone would pull a dirty trick and take her towel away. I slow my Jimmy down to twenty that's how many wrecks I see there everyday, caused by the girl wearing nothing but a smile and a towel in the picture on the billboard in the field near the big old highway.

(A-doodle doo doo) doo A-doodle doo doo doo.

4 Dog-gone that girl wearing nothing but a smile and a towel in the picture on the billboard in the field near the big old highway. The sleepy headed painter said the girl wasn't real, an' I'd better get the heck on my way. On Route 66 from the billboard to Chicago you will find tiny pieces of my heart scattered every which-a way; shattered by the girl wearing nothing but a smile and a towel in the picture on the billboard in the field near the big old highway.

(A-doodle doo doo) doo
A-doodle doo doo doo.

Girl On the Billboard

Originally recorded by Country singer Del Reeves in 1965, when he scored a No.1 hit with it. The song was written by Hank Mills (a.k.a. Sam Garrett, who also wrote Little Ole Wine Drinker Me) and Walter Haynes.
