

Passionate Kisses (Lucinda Williams)

C G Am F

1 C G Am F
Is it too much to ask? I want a comfortable bed that won't hurt my back;
C G Am F
Food to fill me up, and warm clothes and all that stuff.

Ch C Em Am F
Shouldn't I have this? Shouldn't I have this? Shouldn't I have all of this, and
C F C F
Passionate kisses, passionate kisses, whoa oh oh,
C F C G Am F
Passionate kisses from you?

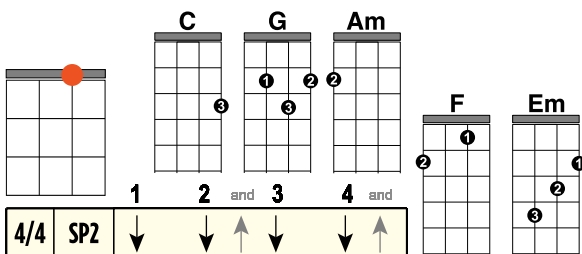

2 C G Am F
Is it much to demand? I want a full house and a rock and roll band;
C G Am F
Pens that won't run out of ink and cool quiet and time to think? [Chorus]

3 C G Am F
Do I want too much? Am I going overboard to want that touch?
C G Am F
I shout it out to the night "Give me what I deserve, 'cause it's my right!"

Ch C Em Am F
Shouldn't I have this? Shouldn't I have this? Shouldn't I have all of this, and
C F C F
Passionate kisses, passionate kisses, whoa oh oh,
C F C G Am F
Passionate kisses from you?

Ch C G Am F
Passionate kisses, passionate kisses, whoa oh oh,
C F C F
Passionate kisses from you.

Ch C— F— C— F—
Passionate kisses, passionate kisses, whoa oh oh,
C— F— C G Am F C G Am F C—
Passionate kisses from you.—

Passionate Kisses was written by country singer Lucinda Williams in 1988. In 1993 Mary Chapin Carpenter released it as a single and sold well in the US and Canada.
