Gavotte 6 (Michael Praetorius, 1571-1621)

The German composer Michael Praetorius worked as an organist and choirmaster and was a prolific creator of sacred music. But he also wrote a collection of 312 popular dances known as the Terpsichore. All the pieces were written for a "consort" - small groups of instruments each playing a different part.

Gavotte 6