Grandfather's Clock

My grandfather's clock was too large for the shelf
 So it stood ninety years on the floor
 It was taller by half than the old man himself
 Though it weighed not a pennyweight more
 It was bought on the morn' of the day that he was born
 And was always his treasure and pride
 But it stopped, short never to go again
 When the old man died

Ninety years without slumbering
 His life seconds numbering
 It stopped, short never to go again
 When the old man died
