

Genevieve Waltz (Larry Adler)

Genevieve, 1953

Genevieve

Genevieve, Genevieve,
Light as a feather
You waltz'd from heaven
Right into my heart,
Pretty Genevieve, Genevieve,
Waltzing together we fit
Like sweet and sweetheart.

Genevieve

American harmonica virtuoso Larry Adler (1914-2001) composed and performed the music for the popular 1953 film Genevieve, which earned him an Oscar nomination.

This tune - the main theme of the film - was also turned into a song with words by American lyricist Dorcas Cochran (1903-1991).
