

On Ilkla Moor Baht 'At (traditional Yorkshire)

song air

Musical score for "On Ilkla Moor Baht 'At" in D major, 2/4 time. The score consists of six staves of music with lyrics underneath. Chord symbols are placed above the notes.

Where hast thou been sin' ah saw thee,
On Il - kla Moor baht 'at.
Where hast thou been sin' ah saw thee?
Where hast thou been sin' ah saw thee?
On Il - kla Moor baht 'at, on Il - kla Moor baht 'at,
On Il - kla Moor baht 'at.

The melody of this song dates back to the early 19th century, and it's actually a Methodist hymn tune called Cranbrook, composed by Thomas Clark. The lyrics were said to have originated from a Halifax church choir, who collaboratively created it on an outing to Ilkley Moor.

On Ilkla Moor