

On Ilkla' Moor Baht 'At (traditional Yorkshire)

song air

Musical score for mandolin in D major, featuring treble and bass staves with lyrics and chord diagrams.

Chords: D, A7, D, G, Em, A7, A7, A7, D, E, A7, E7, A7, A7, D, A7, D, A7, D, D, Em, D, G, A7, D, D.

Lyrics: Where hast thou been sin' ah saw thee, On Il - kla Moor baht 'at. Where hast thou been sin' ah saw thee? On Il - kla Moor baht 'at, on Il - kla Moor baht 'at. On Il - kla Moor baht 'at.

The melody of this song dates back to the early 19th century, and it's actually a Methodist hymn tune called Cranbrook, composed by Thomas Clark. The lyrics were said to have originated from a Halifax church choir, who collaboratively created it on an outing to Ilkley Moor.

On Ilkla Moor